

EXECUTIVE PROFILE

SAMUEL JOHNSON

IBTTA First Vice President

Chief Tolling Officer, Transportation Corridor Agencies

Samuel Johnson is the Chief Operations Officer for the Transportation Corridor Agencies (TCA) in Orange County California and serves as part of the executive management team. Samuel is also chair of the California Toll Operators Coalition, whose 14 member agencies focus on state-wide interoperability and customer communications. Prior to his role with TCA, Samuel was an executive with the San Diego Association of Governments where he directed the regional tolling, intelligent transportation systems and various transportation demand management programs. In both roles he was responsible for the strategic planning, implementation, and operations.

Samuel has a rounded perspective for tolling being trained as an accountant and having worked in transit and advanced technology for two decades and sits on the Board of Directors for the Alliance for Toll Interoperability. At IBTTA, Samuel has served the association through participation on the Finance and Membership committees and currently serves the association as First Vice President. He is slated to serve as the association's president in 2020.

Samuel is a graduate of San Diego State University, holding a degree in Business Management Accountancy, and also a member of Kappa Alpha Psi.
