

EXECUTIVE PROFILE

SAMUEL JOHNSON

IBTTA President

CEO, Transportation Corridor Agencies

Samuel Johnson is the CEO for the Transportation Corridor Agencies (TCA) in Orange County California and serves as part of the executive management team. Samuel is also chair of the California Toll Operators Committee, whose 13 member agencies focus on state-wide interoperability, customer communications and legislative efforts. Prior to his role with TCA, Samuel was an executive with the San Diego Association of Governments where he directed the region's tolling, intelligent transportation systems and transportation demand management programs. In both roles he has been responsible for the strategic planning, implementation, and operations of cutting edge solutions.

Samuel has a rounded perspective for tolling being trained as an accountant and having worked in transit and advanced technology for nearly two decades. At IBTTA, Samuel is currently serving the association as President. Before being appointed to IBTTA's Executive Committee, he served the association through participation on the Finance, Membership and Interoperability Governance committees as well as contributing to the IBTTA TollMiner™ Working Group.

Samuel is a graduate of San Diego State University, holding a degree in Business Management Accountancy, and is a member of Kappa Alpha Psi.