POSTER PRESENTATIONS

Date: Thursday, May 7, 2020
Time: 5:30pm – 7:00pm

Improving our Understanding of the Choice to Travel on Managed Lanes
Mark Burris, Professor, Texas A&M University, College Station, TX

Emerging Vehicle Technologies, Vehicle Miles Traveled, and Fuel Taxes – How Impacts May Vary by State
Ronald Davis, P.E., PMP, Project Manager, CDM Smith, Valley Village, CA

Integrated User Based Charging for Heavy Vehicles
Nina Elter, SVP, Global Market Development, EROAD, Auckland, New Zealand

The Homework of P3s – Initial Analysis and Evaluation of Alternatives
Mary Francoeur, Managing Director, PFM Financial Advisors LLC, New York, NY

Equity and Use of the Dynamically Priced I-405 Express Toll Lanes
Mark Hallenbeck, Director, Washington State Transportation Center (TRAC), University of Washington, Seattle, WA

Benefit Transfer of Value Capture – From Planning to Implementation
Kate Ko, Ph.D., Professional Associate, Senior Economist, HDR, Washington, DC and Allison Neuman, Financial Consultant, HDR, Denver, CO

Probabilistic Valuation of Operation and Maintenance (O&M) in Highway Public-Private Partnerships (P3s)
Kia Mostaan, Ph.D., Consultant, WSP USA, Atlanta, GA

Measuring Economic Impact from an Existing Toll Facility
Jason Myers, Director of Finance, E-470 Public Highway Authority, Aurora, CO

Cap-and-Trade and Funding for the California High-Speed Rail Authority
Bryan Porter, AICP, Environmental Planning Manager, WSP, Sacramento, CA

The Only Way to Address Public Concerns is Having an Educated Public
Nick Farber, Director, Colorado High Performance Transportation Enterprise (HPTE), Denver, CO

Getting the Public on the Pricing Bandwagon
Chris Swenson, P.E., Principal Consultant, WSP, Atlanta, GA

Potomac Yard Metrorail Station Value Capture Strategy
Timothy Thornton, Assistant Vice President, WSP, Denver, CO

Lessons Learned in P3s
Scott Zuchorski, Senior Director, Fitch Ratings, New York, NY

Join us during the Exhibitor Reception for lively and engaging Poster Session Presentations.